Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 3, 2011

TO: Honorable Bill Callegari, Chair, House Committee on Government Efficiency & Reform

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3167 by Callegari ( Relating to the abolishment of the state regulation of talent agencies and personnel services.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Occupations Code relating to the abolishment of the state regulation of talent agencies and personnel services.

Article One of the bill would repeal Chapter 2105 of the Occupations Code and deregulate Talent Agents. This would remove functions relating to licensing and enforcement from the Department of Licensing and Regulation.

Article Two of the bill would repeal Section 2501.001(2), (3-a), and (4-a); Section 2501.201(c); Section 2501.253; Subchapters B and D, Chapter 2501 and deregulate regulation of personnel services. This would remove functions relating to licensing and enforcement from the Department of Licensing and Regulation.

This Act takes effect September 1, 2011.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
